The Tuxedo Historical Society's mission is to foster awareness of the community's history by collecting, preserving and presenting materials and programs that document life, past and present, in the Town of Tuxedo and the Village of Tuxedo Park, New York.

For you, the THS is a developing and friendly place where you will be able to participate in special programs and lectures, view historical artifacts and learn more about Tuxedo's rich history.

Your membership dollars help care for and improve the building, catalog the collection and help develop programs for public education and enjoyment.
